VII. PROCEDURE FOR HOLDING THE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

7.1 The Committee meetings are convened at the initiative of the Chairman of the Committee, upon request of a Committee member, a Board member, or the Secretary of the Committee.

7.2 The Committee meetings may be held in the form of joint presence (meeting in person), including via video conference and telephone (conference-call), and in the form of absentee meeting (through completed voting ballots submitted by the Committee members). The Chairman of the Committee resolves on the form of the meeting. The Committee meeting is held at the Company’s location, unless otherwise directed when the meeting was convened.

7.3 The Committee meetings shall not be held at a place and time creating significant obstacles for the majority of the Committee members and preventing them from attending the meeting or making such attendance impossible.

- 7.4 All Committee members shall be notified of the Committee meeting not later than 3 (Three) calendar days prior to the meeting. The notification period may be shorter if all current Committee members consent thereto.

A notification of the Committee meeting shall specify the date, time, place of the meeting and the proposed agenda. Copies (drafts) of any documents to be reviewed at the Committee meeting or those required for passing resolutions on the agenda issues shall be enclosed to such notification. Materials on the agenda issues shall contain the required and sufficient amount of information enabling the Committee members to pass a reasonable and objective resolution on the agenda issues.

The Committee members are notified of the meeting by delivery against signature (personally or through representative) or by e-mail.

- 7.5 A Committee meeting has a quorum (is quorate) if more than a half of the Committee members participate in such meeting; and in case of absentee meeting, a meeting is deemed quorate if ballots from more than a half of the elected Committee members are received by the Chairman of the Committee by the final date for the voting ballots receipt.

In determining a quorum and summarizing the voting results on the agenda issues, a written opinion of an absent Committee member is taken into account.

A written opinion of a Committee member is sent to the Chairman of the Committee in accordance with the procedure set forth for sending completed ballots in the event that a Committee meeting is held as absentee meeting.

For determining a quorum, votes of the Committee members who participated in the meeting by telephone or video conference calls are taken into account.

- 7.6 A resolution of the Committee may be passed by holding an absentee meeting.

A resolution to hold an absentee meeting shall specify:

- issues put to vote;
- wording and form of the voting ballot;
- list of information (materials) to be provided to the Committee members;
- date of provision of the voting ballots and other information (materials) to the Committee members;
- final date for the voting ballots receipt;
- address for the voting ballots receipt.

Voting ballots shall be sent to the Committee members not later than 3 (Three) calendar days prior to the Committee meeting (final date for the voting ballots receipt). The period for sending the voting ballots may be shorter if all current Committee members consent thereto.

Voting ballots may be drafted in Russian and (or) English, provided that the Russian version prevails.

Voting ballots and other information (materials) are sent to the Committee members by e-mail or by delivery against signature.

In the event of absentee meeting, resolutions of the Committee are passed based on the completed voting ballots submitted to the Chairman of the Committee, including scanned copies thereof sent by e-mail.

In the event of absentee meeting, issues on the agenda may be discussed by telephone or video conference calls or by sending a fax message. A Committee member who did not participate in the telephone or video conference may attach to the completed voting ballot his/her opinion on the agenda issues.

A resolution of the Committee passed at absentee meeting is deemed passed provided that more than a half of the elected Committee members voted “for”.

The date of an absentee Committee meeting is the final date for the voting ballots receipt.

- 7.7 When a voting ballot is filled out by a Committee member, for each issue put to vote only one of the possible voting options (“for”, “against”, “abstained”) shall be left uncrossed.

A completed voting ballot shall be signed by the Committee member, including his/her last name and initials.

A voting ballot with no signature, as well as a voting ballot submitted after the final date for the voting ballots receipt stipulated by the Regulations, is declared invalid and shall not be counted when determining a quorum required for passing resolutions at absentee meeting and summarizing the voting results.

- 7.8 For the purposes of passing resolutions at the Committee meetings each Committee member has one vote. A Committee member shall not transfer his/her vote to other persons, including other Committee members.

- 7.9 If necessary, a Committee meeting may be postponed without passing resolutions on the agenda issues if all present Committee members consent thereto.

- 7.10 Committee members and invitees of the Committee meetings may participate in discussions, make proposals, comment on the discussed issues, and provide information on the agenda issues of the Committee meeting.

- 7.11 A Committee member who has a dissenting opinion on the agenda issue is entitled to send his/her dissenting opinion in writing to the Chairman of the Committee. Such opinion is drafted by the Committee member and delivered to the Secretary of the Committee not later than the next business day following the date of the Committee meeting. The dissenting opinion shall be attached to the minutes of the Committee meeting.

- 7.12 With due regard for the need to ensure protection of confidential and other information protected by the laws and internal documents of the Company, the Chairman of the Committee may, at his/her discretion, allow presence and/or invite to the Committee meetings (without a right to vote) the following persons who are not Committee members or Board members: members of the Internal Audit Committee, other officers of the Company, heads of structural units of the Company, representatives of the Company's auditor, experts, counsels and other persons. In the absence of any decision on this issue by the Chairman of the Committee, persons who are not employees of the Company may not participate in a Committee meeting. Participation of the invitees is reflected in the minutes of the Committee meeting.

- 7.13 By resolution of the Board of Directors, there may be elected (appointed) an expert of the Committee who participates in the Committee meetings (without a right to vote) for a period until the next election of the Committee (hereinafter referred to as the Committee Expert on a Permanent Basis). The Committee Expert on a Permanent Basis may be elected from among the employees of the Group, experts, counsels and other persons.

VIII. MINUTES OF THE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

- 8.1 Minutes are taken during the Committee meetings. The minutes of the Committee meeting are drafted not later than 3 (Three) business days after the meeting.

- 8.2 The minutes of the meeting specify:

- place, date and time of the meeting;
- persons present at the meeting;
- meeting agenda;
- brief summary of the participants' presentations and names of the presenters on each agenda issue put to vote (except for absentee meetings);
- issues put to vote and voting results;
- resolutions passed.

- 8.3 The minutes of the Committee meeting are signed by the Chairman or the Secretary of the Committee who are responsible for accuracy of the minutes. The minutes are drafted in one original copy which is kept in the Committee's files at the location of the Company. The Secretary of the Committee sends a copy of the minutes by e-mail to all Committee members and the Corporate Secretary within 3 (Three) business days from the date the minutes of the Committee meeting have been drafted.

IX. INTERACTION WITH THE COMPANY'S BODIES AND OTHER PERSONS

- 9.1 In the course of performance of its duties, the Committee interacts with the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee under the Board of Directors.

- 9.2 Information and documents required for the Committee members to perform their work are requested and provided in writing through the Chairman of the Committee.

- 9.3 If required and upon approval of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, counsels and specialists who have a special expertise on certain issues falling within the competence of the Committee may be engaged in the Committee's work. The procedure and conditions for engagement of such experts and specialists in the Committee's work are determined by the agreement entered into between the Company and such persons.
- 9.4 The Board of Directors conducts an annual assessment of performance efficiency of the Committee and its members.
- 9.5 The Committee semi-annually reports to the Board of Directors on the results of the Committee's activities.

X. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 10.1 The Regulations, as well as all amendments and additions thereto, are approved by resolution of the Board of Directors.
- 10.2 Should some clauses of the Regulations contradict the applicable laws of the Russian Federation or the Charter, such clauses cease to be in force.

Until the relevant amendments are introduced into the Regulations, the Company and its shareholders shall act in accordance with applicable laws of the Russian Federation, the Charter, and the Regulations on the Board of Directors of Company.
